

VINCE GASPARRO

Member of Parliament

Eglinton—Lawrence

VOL. 2 | ISSUE NO.2

The world has changed and our economy is changing with it.

Our new government is moving quickly to advance Canadian interests and grow the economy by reinforcing reliable trading relationships, supporting our industries, and building a strong, confident workforce.

This nation-building work is now in full force.

THROUGH OUR PLAN, WE ARE:

-  Unleashing investment
-  Building new affordable homes
-  Creating new Canadian jobs

TRANSFORMING OUR ECONOMY

BUYING CANADIAN

Updating Canada’s public procurement process—with an obligation to Buy Canadian.

RE-TRAINING WORKERS

Introducing a reskilling package for up to 50,000 Canadian workers, and launching a digital jobs platform.

MAKING EI MORE FLEXIBLE

Supporting Canadian workers, especially those impacted by tariffs, by extending EI benefits, and making them more flexible.

STRATEGIC RESPONSE FUND

Investing $5 billion to help industries impacted by tariffs adapt, diversify, and grow.

RELIABLE TRADE TIES

Strengthening our relationships with reliable trading partners, including Mexico, Italy, Indonesia, and Germany.

MAJOR PROJECTS OFFICE

A new single point of contact to get nation-building projects built faster.

BUILD CANADA HOMES

A new federal agency that will build affordable housing, at scale, from coast to coast.

REGIONAL TARIFF RESPONSE

Providing $1 billion over three years to support small and medium sized businesses, contributing to long-term economic success.

THE FIGHT AGAINST HATE

Canada stands firm. No one should feel afraid because of who they are, how they worship, or where they gather. Rising hate of all forms has left too many people feeling unsafe in their own communities.

Our government is taking bold steps to address this.

THE COMBATTING HATE ACT WILL:

PROTECT COMMUNITY SPACES

MAKE IT A CRIME TO INTIMIDATE AND OBSTRUCT PEOPLE FROM ACCESSING PLACES OF WORSHIP, SCHOOLS, AND COMMUNITY CENTRES

DEFINE HATE CRIMES

MAKE HATE MOTIVATED CRIME A SPECIFIC OFFENCE, HOLDING OFFENDERS ACCOUNTABLE

BAN HATE SYMBOLS

MAKE IT A CRIME TO WILFULLY PROMOTE HATRED BY DISPLAYING CERTAIN TERRORISM OR HATE SYMBOLS
